

ALISUR SAC, company specialized in the primary processing and commercialization of Andean cereals in their different presentations.

ALISUR SAC establishes standards and work procedures for our processes, which guarantee the environmental commitment, in accordance with the requirements of our clients and other interested parties.

We are committed to promoting active teamwork participation of all staff for continuous improvement in all processes of the organization, promoting cost efficiency, productivity improvement, and commitment to the environment in our operations.

- a. We intend to decrease energy consumption. Promoting that teams are disconnected at the end of each activity.
- b. We are committed to reducing the amount of water used, encouraging our employees to turn off the tap when they are not being used.
- c. We are committed to sensitizing our collaborators on the importance of recycling, reducing the amount of general solid waste through correct segregation and identifying waste bins.

Internal and external communication, transmitting the policy to all employees and suppliers of the organization so that it is understood by them.

It provides the necessary resources to achieve the proposed objectives and guaranteeing compliance with the provisions of the Environmental Management System and monitoring is carried out in the Environment Committee.

RAUL ANTONIO PASTOR LASO

General management
RAÚL PASTOR LASO